

Transitions: Summer Wardrobe to Fall

By Pam Burns and
Alexis Miller

Fall may be right around the corner, but don't pack away those summer clothes quite yet. The key to successful fall dressing is transitioning your summer wardrobe into a sensational fall look. A few updated pieces may just change that tired, summer outfit into the hottest look for the fall.

Worn that sundress to death and looking for something new? How about pairing it with one of this fall's hottest trends, a long boyfriend cardigan? Along with the cardigan, adding a thin metallic belt and neutral pumps completes the look.

Who says you can't wear white pants after Labor Day? A pair of white jeans can take you well into fall. To give your white jeans a cool-weather look, add a long sweater vest, a statement shoe and a chic metallic scarf.

Hate to give up your summer washed-out denim? Since leather is everywhere for fall, pair it with those washed-out denim pieces to add a chic edge.

Remember: the start of fall does not mean you have to go out and buy a new wardrobe. After visiting some of our favorite stores, we found a few additional pieces that accomplished our goal of putting together the perfect fall outfits.
